

Anil Singh

Sr. VP & Managing Director

Anil Singh has spent over 35 years in the maritime and transport industry having spent his earlier years at sea.

Before moving to the Subcontinent, Mr. Singh headed DP World's Africa Region. He joined DP World from Thailand, where he spent 7 years as Group CEO for a joint venture.

Prior to 2001, Anil was with P&O Australia in senior management roles for 13 years of which 8 years as Managing Director of Century Group of Companies in Papua New Guinea. Century Group was involved with Ports, Ship-owning, Ship-agency, Mining and Petroleum logistics for BHP Rio Tinto and Chevron. His other assignments included CEO of Nhava Sheva Container Terminal, Mumbai, and as Project Manager for Asia/South America region based in Sydney. Anil is presently heading the Subcontinent Region where DP World has 7 container terminals and a rail company.

